

Eden's Maya Documentary

Takeda

She is a goddess. She is named Takeda because she hints in her name it says take as she takes samples of the Maya people's blood to help make more headdresses to scare off the demons. The demons face the right while the friendly, kind gods are faced, tilted to the left.

If you do not worship,
obey her she will sacrifice you. She kills any animals in sight as she dislikes their bite. She moves in a flash. If you make eye contact with her she throws a grape
from her bowl and
turns you to dust.
And that is the reason
that her skin has no
colours.

Thanks for watching!!!
